WE LEARNED THIS SONG ABOUT
PARASHAT CHAYEI SARAH!
Tune: Hey Ho! from Disney's
Snow White & the Seven Dwarfs

Hey Ho! Hey Ho!
For Avraham I go.
A wife for Yitzchak I must find,
Hey Ho! Hey Ho! Hey Ho!

Hey Ho! Hey Ho!
I'll sit here by the well.
I need a girl who'll give a drink,
To me,
And them as well,
Hey Ho!

OUR INTERSICLIPLINARY LEARNING
this week explored the importance of a community and the responsibilities of everyone who lives and works in the community. We also sorted and discussed the differences between GOODS and SERVICES, goods being things you can buy or make, for example, an apple or a shirt, and services being things that people in a community do for us, for example, doctors, police who protect us.
What goods & services can you name?

ROSH CHODESH FAMILY TEFILLAH NEXT WEEK!

We are looking forward to our parents joining our Rosh Chodesh tefillah on Tuesday November 14, 8:45 a.m.-9:15 a.m. After tefillah, coffee and croissants will be available for parents to be able to quickly shmooze before their busy day begins. The children are really enjoying the new tefillot they are learning. You can also enjoy at home in this Spotify list;

Sharing Some of Our Learning With You.

SHOW-AND-TELL For the past few weeks, the class has been enthralled by Show-and-Tell from Ms. Keen (a family photo album), Morah Shaina (a photo of her and her brother as children ready to light Shabbat candles), Morah Chaya S. (her elementary school yearbook), and Morah Chaya R. (her art portfolio). The children were fascinated to learn about their teachers' families, childhoods, and lives outside of school. Now it's the children's turn! Each week one child will bring in an item from home and tell the class something about it. For example, what it is, where they got it, why it is important to them etc. The class will then ask them questions about it. The children have brought home the Show-and-Tell schedule (also attached to the email). Next week it is Bowie's turn!

With grateful thanks to the relatives of our Tamim NYC community currently serving:

ELA Kindergarten: This week we learned the sounds h, and r.

Can you 'Fred talk' h-a-t, b-u-s, and h-o-p to make words?

KRIAH: KINDERGARTEN has been learning about open and closed beats (syllables). Our mouth stays open at the end of an open beat (syllable) and closes at the end of a closed beat.

Can you choose some items from your Shabbat table and check if their beats are open or closed? For example, you can use נרות, קידוש, חלה, or שלחן - or even your family's names!

1ST GRADE learners have been practicing the Cholem (i) sound.

Can you find some words in the Siddur or Birkat Hamazon that you can read?

LEARNING TORAH VALUES AT TAMIM NYC!

This week Tamim learners have been exploring the middah of Kindness in Parashat Chayei Sarah, and have learnt that Kindness is in each action, no matter how big or small.

Share a kindness you did this week and a kindness someone did for you.

Our Friday assembly explored VETERANS DAY. The children learnt about the six branches of the military (Marines, Army, Navy, Airforce, Coastguard and Space Force), and how we should thank veterans for protecting us. We also sang the Star Spangled Banner!

Wishing all our Tamim Academy NYC families a Shabbat Shalom!
